To Whom the Services are Provided

Our services are provided free of charge and they are available to all foreigners who concurrently:

- have obtained a valid permanent or long-term residence
- are from non-member states of the EU (i.e. „third countries“)

Where the Services are Provided

All services you can use in our Center in Závodu míru street in Karlovy Vary. If you are interested, we can organize courses and provide consulting anywhere in the Karlovy Vary region.

Consulting and Information Activities

We can provide advice and assistance in the following areas:

- Residence-related requirements
- Social aid and benefits
- Health care and health insurance
- Accommodation
- Labour market
- Education and schooling
- Various life events – the birth of a child, wedding, death of a loved one

We will advise you which institution to turn to, we will help you to complete forms and arrange a person who will accompany you to any state administrative body or agency, if necessary.

Legal Counselling

At designated times, a lawyer will be present at the Centre, with whom you may namely consult the following:

- issues relating to residence and visas
- labour relations

You may obtain detailed information about the legal counselling hours directly at our Centre or on the website www.integracnicentra.cz. We recommend arranging an appointment in person or by phone to avoid possible waiting.

Social and Cultural Courses

- You will acquire essential information about the Czech Republic, particularly about its social and health care, as well as the educational system
- We will help you communicate better with the authorities and employers

With the aid of simple examples and model situations, you will learn how to react correctly in everyday situations, such as communication with local people, shopping, ordering meals at restaurants, travelling around the Czech Republic, etc. You will also learn more about Czech history, traditions, and holidays.

Czech Language Courses

Basic

- Intended for clients with a minimum knowledge of Czech
- One-time attendance is also possible
- No prior enrolment is required

You will learn to communicate better in basic life situations, e.g. at the doctor's office, with public authorities, when shopping, etc.

Intensive

- Intended for clients with a more advanced knowledge of Czech; you will be assigned to the appropriate course by a tutor
- Individual lessons are interconnected and regular attendance is thus necessary
- Prior enrolment is required due to the limited number of places available

You will communicate more easily in more complex situations, e.g. during a job interview. We can also help you prepare for the required language exams.

Internet Point and Library

- You may take advantage of free internet access
- The library offers newspapers and magazines in English, French, Russian, Ukrainian, Vietnamese, and Chinese

You can quickly access the latest information, e.g. job or accommodation offers.

Basic computer literacy courses

- learn the basics of computer skills
- gain knowledge in using the Internet and e-mail
- acquaint with a text editor

Through practical exercises you will learn to work with a computer and the Internet. Improving the computer skills to increase your chance to apply to the labor market.
