Who are the services intended for:

- Foreigners residing in the Czech Republic legally on the basis of the Act on the Residence of Foreigners
- Individuals who have been granted international protection – asylum, subsidiary protection
- People who do not belong to above-mentioned groups but who have demonstrably similar integration needs.

All these services can be used for FREE in our Center, in the case of interest we can organize courses and consulting anywhere in the Karlovy Vary Region.

professional social consulting

As part of the Center's activities, according to Act No. 108/2006 Coll., the services - professional social counseling are registered. Counseling is provided via the Center's social workers. For more detailed information, please visit www.integracnicentra.cz, in the service information materials or the register of social services.

Areas where we can advice and help you:

- residence-related requirements
- social aid and benefits
- health care and health insurance
- accomodation, labour market, education and schooling
- various life events – the birth of a child, wedding, death of a loved one
- complete different forms, if necessary we can provide a person who will accompany you to office or administrative body.

interpretations

Interpreters are used in social work at selected Czech language courses, at sociocultural courses or when organizing educational, cultural and leisure activities.

Most often we interpret in Vietnamese, Mongolian, Ukrainian, Russian, or English and Chinese language.

Czech language courses

BASIC

- designed for clients with a minimum knowledge of the Czech language
- it is possible to visit the course just once
- you do not have to register to the course

The course teach you how to better communicate in everyday situations such as at the doctor, at the office, shop etc.

INTENSIVE

- designed for clients with advanced knowledge of the Czech language; teacher ranks you to a suitable course
- lessons are related and they have to be attended regularly
- Course capacity is limited, you must be registered for the course

It will be easier for you to communicate in more complicated situations, such as for example a job interview. The course can help you with the preparation for the required language test.

Legal consulting

At certain times there is a lawyer in the Centre with whom you can consult the following:

- residence and visas issues
- labour-law relationships
- execution
- tax consultancy

Hours, when legal advice is provided you can find in our Centre or at www.integracnicentra.cz. We recommend you ordering assesion in person or by phone to avoid waiting.

Sociocultural courses

- you get basic information about the Czech Republic at these courses, especially about social, health and educational system
- we can teach you how to communicate with offices and employers
- you get information about Examination of the Czech facts, which is one of the conditions to gain Czech citizenship

Simple examples and model situations will teach you how to react in everyday situations, such as communication with local people, shopping, ordering the meal in a restaurant, travelling in Czech republic etc. You can also learn more about life in Czech republic, its history and geography.

Internet point and library

- possibility of using free access to internet
- you get quick access to actual information, such as job offers or housing
- there are available newspapers and magazines in English, French, Russian, Ukrainian, Vietnamese, and Chinese language in the library

If you do not know how to use your computer or the Internet, we are happy to demonstrate and explain.

Educational events

We organize and provide lectures and training sessions, for both children and adults, and for general public or professionals too.

We cooperate with schools, low-threshold facilities for children and youth and other organizations when organizing these events.
